Experience

● EGYGAMER salesman

2024

- Helping customers know their needs and understanding more about video games, such as PlayStation, Xbox, and their own games, understanding customers' thinking, helping them make choices, following up on inventory, and solving customer problems.

● E-commerce company salesman

2023

- Follow up with customers in choosing the product, showing them more products, explaining the product and its benefits, and presenting offers to them by phone and website
- Oversee market research to identify emerging trends, customer needs, and competitor strategies.

● Media company for producing advertisements Video Editing

- A specialized company proficient in crafting promotional videos for Facebook and YouTube to showcase clients' products and highlight the company's unique features and offerings. I specialized in curating client materials and producing explanatory videos encompassing all aspects of the company to attract more customers and increase sales, utilizing editing software such as Adobe Premiere and Filmora.

● Mahgoub - Ceramic and Porcelain salesman

- Offering a comprehensive range of products tailored for apartment needs, including ceramics, plumbing works, and personalized assistance for clients in selecting products that align with their budget, quality preferences, and suitable color choices. Our approach involves guiding clients through the selection process, ensuring that the chosen ceramics meet their specific requirements. Furthermore, our commitment extends beyond the point of sale, with dedicated post-sales services aimed at resolving any issues promptly and ensuring customer satisfaction.

Activity

● Volunteer

Children's Cancer Hospital Foundation 57357

- Providing psychological support for children and organizing entertaining parties for them, I was involved in the theater department to create plays for children and awareness plays for parents in a simplified manner. Additionally, I learned how to interact with sick children.
